About SCLL

With facilities located at Lower Potomac Park, SCLL is committed to providing the complete Little League experience for boys and girls, age 4 to 16 within our community. Our program stresses skill development to play the game with confidence while instilling teamwork and sportsmanship. SCLL families enjoy a team of dedicated volunteers, high quality facilities, and the chance to learn and play the game in an open family friendly environment.

Little League is a recognized non-profit. South County Little League depends on the generosity of sponsors to provide uniforms, equipment and facilities for our youth. SCLL actively promotes our sponsors via uniforms, our web site, field banners and social media.

Please make checks payable to South County Little League and return to
